INTERNATIONAL FELLOWSHIP

The Club has been very lucky to have members who are very keen to travel overseas. Members like to travel overseas for holidays or to visit our friends in the sister clubs. Sister clubs like to celebrate their Installation, their anniversaries or launch projects. Most of the time our members take the opportunity to attend the sister clubs' functions and at the same time have a holiday.

As of writing a group of our members led by President Steven Oon, are at sister club RC Hong Kong Harbour, helping them to celebrate their 25th anniversary. No doubt they will be well received and will have a great time getting to know each other better. After the celebration, the group will visit Shenzhen, China duly led by Rtn Sandy in the absence of PP Richard Liew who last minute couldn't make it.

Then in early May, some members will be visiting sister club RC Dhonburi to attend their Board Installation as well as their 55th anniversary celebration dinner. Members will also take the opportunity to attend the 2012 RI Convention in Bangkok. They will be meeting many new friends as well as renewing old acquaintances. Sightseeing is a must as well as sampling great food. PDG Dr Paul Lee being an old hand in this game and being very familiar with many places serving fantastic food will no doubt lead the way.

After that there will be visits to see our old friends in sister club RC Songkhla to attend their Installation. For the information of new members, we have been visiting them for the past 17 years and normally in great numbers. Sometimes even by the bus load! There must be magic in these visits for members to keep going there year after year. Think about great food, shopping and great fellowship and you can't be wrong.

Of course nearer home we have RC Singapore West. A great place to visit as we have many good friends there. We have carried out many projects together for the past 17 years (as well).

THE ROTARY EMBLEM

Use of the Rotary Marks by Rotary Clubs, Rotary Districts, and Other Rotary Entities

On its own, the word "Rotary" normally refers to the entire organization, Rotary International. It also means the ideals and principles of the organization.

Use of the word "Rotary" by itself is limited to those uses approved in the RI constitutional documents or authorized by the RI Board. No club or group of clubs should adopt or operate under any name other than the name under which it was organized by RI.

The term "Rotarian" is used exclusively to designate a member of a Rotary club and in the name of the official magazine, The Rotarian

Project and Program Names and Materials

When used in connection with or in the name of an activity of Rotary clubs, Rotary districts, and other Rotary Entities, the word "Rotary" must relate the activity directly to the club, district, or other Rotary Entity and neither directly nor indirectly to RI. Identifying a project or program only with "Rotary" or the Rotary emblem could mean that it is an RI project or program, especially since the Rotary emblem includes the words "Rotary International." Therefore, RI Board guidelines require the use of the name of the Rotary Entity and not just the word "Rotary" in the name of any activity, such as a project or program.

Similarly, RI Board guidelines require the use of the name of the Rotary Entity or other Rotary Marks to be used together with the Rotary emblem in materials used in conjunction with these types of activities. The name of the Rotary Entity should be placed in close proximity to and in equal prominence with the Rotary emblem or other Rotary Marks on all materials used for the activity. (If the activity is a district or multidistrict project or program, it must be approved under the RI Board guidelines for these activities.) The use of such further identifiers will ensure recognition is given to the proper Rotary Entity. For example:

When time permits, Helen would also help out teaching English to some Myanmar children as well as going for outreaches in Cambodia.

TRF trustee Jackson San Lien Hsieh in Philippines

AFTER Rotary International (RI) fully eradicates polio and its debilitating effects worldwide, it will focus the attention and energy of its 1.2 million members and its 32,000 clubs worldwide on eradicating three equally pressing problems confronting the world: illiteracy, lack of clean water and child mortality. Rotary Foundation trustee Jackson San Lien Hsieh, who is here in the Philippines as the representative of RI President Kalyan Banerjee to the District Conference 2012 of RI District 3810 (covering Manila, Pasay City, Cavite and Occidental Mindoro), is of the thought that eliminating these three grave problems will become the thrust of RI and its Foundation in the years to come.

In a media brief issued on his behalf, Hsieh was quoted as saying:

“After PolioPlus succeeds, illiteracy, clean water and reducing children mortality should be given priority as our worldwide goals... as they are the biggest stumbling block in the path of progress and prosperity. I consider illiteracy to be the most important issue because a literate world could solve essentially all the problems in the world.”

Other thoughts of Hsieh:

1. “If we want to see Rotary remain relevant in this century, the most important thing we should do is to bring in as many young members as possible. There should be effective ways and means to achieve this. I have become involved in the discussions on the “Every Rotarian, One New Member” drive and I think we should consider this and adopt it into our daily ventures and goals.
2. “To my understanding, the Four Way Test remains to be a practice by individual Rotarians and Rotary clubs across the world. The Four-Way Test is the most crucial part of Rotary’s vocational service; as Rotarians, we all practice it daily. It is intended to develop and maintain high ethical standards in human relations and is the basic requirement of Rotary membership.
3. “Rotary will definitely remain relevant. The object of Rotary is held in high esteem in our community and our services such as polio eradication, alleviation of poverty and reducing children mortality. Furthermore, we have a good and effective leadership structure, namely the RI Board of Directors, which always leads Rotary worldwide in good directions.
4. “My message to Rotarians is: We must be united in service, dedicated to Rotary.” Hsieh, a Rotarian from the Rotary Club of Taipei Sunrise, a past district governor and a past RI board director, answered questions from select members of the Philippine media at the start of District 3810’s annual conference at a press briefing at the Sofitel Hotel. I moderated this briefing as a member of RI’s PR group for South Pacific. With Hsieh at the press conference was District 3810 Governor Ernesto Yao Choa and Past District Gov. Lyne Abanila, the current public relations chair of RI’s South Pacific Region. The press conference was one of the highlights of District 3810’s Discon 2012.

Rotary news in brief from around the globe

Rotary clubs around the globe have many things in common, including a commitment to service. All year long, clubs are taking action to make a difference in their communities. Here’s a roundup of recent club activities worldwide:

Canada

To help revitalize the commercial area of St. Catharines, Ontario, and strengthen the local arts scene, the Rotary Club of St. Catharines donated C$100,000 to a project that will relocate a performing and fine arts school to the city’s downtown. The contribution is the largest single gift in the club’s 91-year history. The effort, which will move Brock University’s 500-student Marilyn I. Walker School of Fine and Performing Arts, is expected to be completed in 2014.

USA

The Rotary Club of Aurora Fitzsimons, Colorado, is partnering with the founder of the Guitars for the Troops program to provide deployed soldiers with guitars and packages of music supplies. The guitars are built to withstand the climatic conditions where soldiers are stationed, and the supplies include a padded travel bag and strap, extra strings, guitar picks, a chord book, and a play-along CD. The club has raised enough money to donate more than 125 guitars since 2010, delivering the packages to Fort Carson to be shipped to soldiers serving around the world.

Dominica

For 17 years, the Rotary Club of Dominica has worked with the Rotary Club of Eaton Rapids, Michigan, USA, to provide eye care to island residents through Volunteer Optometric Services to Humanity. During an average 10-day clinic, 1,700 people undergo complete eye exams, and patients who need them receive prescription glasses or referrals for medical care. Students and faculty of the Michigan College of Optometry at Ferris State University participate in the missions, which are also supported by the Dominican government. The most recent clinic was held in January.

England

The Rotary Club of Guernsey raised US$15,700 in one year for Rotary's Challenge by selling End Polio Now merchandise in its own online shop. The club started out by selling a few items within District 1110 (part of England; Channel Islands), but demand from outside the district grew, and now anyone can visit the website to buy toys, apparel, and office supplies sporting the End Polio Now logo. All profits from the shop, at www.endpolionowguernseyshop.org, go to the polio eradication campaign.

Egypt

The Rotary Club of Alexandria Sporting is providing microcredit loans of about US$85 each to 20 low-income entrepreneurs so they can start their own businesses. Under the revolving program, the loans are paid back in a year, then loaned back out. The club also funds workshops for women, including literacy classes that have helped 75 participants learn to read and write, and a sewing class that serves 45 women each month. Financial literacy classes provide loan recipients with advice on budgeting and saving the money they earn from their new businesses.

India

In August, 188 children with disabilities participated in a statewide swimming competition, the second organized by the Rotary Club of Pune Pashan. The president of the club, along with Bollywood producer, director, and actor Mahesh Manjrekar, gave out prizes. The success of the competition has led the club to start planning a national event involving all the Rotary districts in India.

Philippines

To promote renewable energy sources, the Rotary Club of Mabalacat Clark and District 2680 (Japan), including the Rotary Club of Kobe-Suma, raised a total of US$5,000 to donate a hybrid wind/solar energy system to Mabalacat College in July. The new system can generate 600 watts of electricity per hour and will be used to power LED lights across the campus.

New Zealand

The Lego Olympics of Timaru in July encouraged children to use their imaginations and practice their Lego building skills. The competition, which was launched by the Rotary Club of Timaru South in 2008, includes an event in which the children build models according to a given design, as well as an anything-goes contest. The main event is a race between Lego cars that are propelled by gravity down specially built lanes.

Rotary to use 2.5 million charity miles to support lifesaving surgeries

Ali was born with a seriously deformed spine and thoracic cage.

Doctors treating the 12-year-old Iraqi boy at a clinic run by off-duty U.S. Army medics in Baghdad knew his best hope for corrective surgery existed outside Iraq. Through the efforts of clinic staff and Rotarians in the United States, Ali and several other Iraqi children were able to undergo life-changing surgery at Shriners Hospital in Philadelphia in 2008.

Rotary International's Rotary Miles program provided free airfare for the children and their family members through the organization's participation in United Airlines' charity miles program. Over the years, Rotary has used donated miles to support surgeries by Gift of Life and Rotaplast, two organizations supported by Rotarians. The miles also have been used for Engineers Without Borders volunteers working on Rotary water projects, and in support of other Rotary club and district humanitarian efforts around the world.

Rotary wins 2.5 million miles

Recently, Rotary Miles received a major boost when it qualified for roughly 2.5 million miles from United's 10 Million Charity Miles Giveaway, held in December.

The contest invited people to vote online to determine how the miles would be divided among 45 organizations participating in the airline's charity miles program, with awards equal to the percentage of the vote received. Spurred on by social media promotions, Rotarians helped catapult Rotary from 18th to second place in the span of a week, winning 24.8 percent of the United miles.

“Given that this was during December, a time that many clubs had wound down for the festive season, it was a fantastic result,” says Simone Carot Collins, past chair of the Rotarians on Social Networks Fellowship. “We promoted it heavily through social networks (especially Facebook), and from there, clubs emailed and posted in their club bulletins.”

In coming months, the miles will be used for eight volunteers participating in National Immunization Days (NIDs), will enable four youth exchange students from disadvantaged households to participate in the NIDs, and will provide for four Gift of Life trips bringing children and their mothers to the United States for surgery.

In addition, the miles will support Rotary Friendship Exchanges, send a student and parent to a Rotary institute or peace conference in celebration of Interact’s 50th anniversary, support service projects in each of Rotary’s six areas of focus, and send participants to a peace conference in Berlin, a Rotary education event in Myanmar, and the Global Poverty Project Concert in New York City.

How you can donate miles

With Rotary’s participation in the United Airlines Mileage Plus Charity Miles Program, Rotarians and non-Rotarians can donate miles, in 1,000-mile increments, to benefit Rotary Foundation programs. Learn how you can donate. (Mileage Plus members can donate online through their Mileage Plus account by clicking on the About United link, then on Global Citizen and Charity Miles, and then selecting Rotary and the number of miles to be donated.)

Rotarians also can work with the Rotary International Travel Service to collect miles from their community for a specific project. Find out how to go about it.

Not forgetting RC Mandaluyong or RC Gambir, Jakarta, or RC Taichung South of Taiwan. We have friends there too but of late, not many visits had been planned.T

The visits to build international friendship are not one way only. The members and families of the sister clubs also visit us reciprocally and we try to give them a good time too.

So if you have been missing all these good times, old members, do join in the great fun. New members do join in when you have the opportunity. You won’t regret it.

These are very good Philosophy

6 PRINCIPLES OF LIFE

1. No point using limited life to chase unlimited money.
2. No point earning so much money you cannot live to spend it.
3. Money is not yours until you spend it.
4. When you are young, you use your health to chase your wealth; when you are old, you use your wealth to buy back your health. Difference is that, it is too late.
5. How happy a man is, is not how much he has but how little he needs.
6. No point working so hard to provide for the people you have no time to spend with.

Remember this -- We come to this world with nothing, we leave this world with nothing!

A wise man once sat in the audience and cracked a joke.. all of them laughed like crazy.

After a moment he cracked the same joke again & a little less people laughed this time...

He cracked the same one again & no one laughed !!!

Then he smiled and said "when you can't laugh on the same joke again & again then why do you keep crying over the same thing over & over again"

FORGET the past and MOVE ON

Alone I can say, but together we can shout. Alone I can smile, but together we can laugh.

Alone I can enjoy, but together we can celebrate!

THE SMILE

A smile costs nothing, but gives much.

It enriches those who receive, without making poorer those who gives.

It takes but a moment, but the memory of it sometimes last forever.

None is so rich, or mighty that he can get along without it,

And none is so poor that he can made rich by it.

A smile creates happiness in the home, foster goodwill in business,

And is the countering of friendships.

It brings rest to the weary, cheer to the discouraged, sunshine to the sad,

And it is nature's best antidote for trouble.

Yes it cannot be bought, begged, borrowed or stolen.

As it is something that is of no value to anyone until it is given away.

Some people are too tired to give you a SMILE.

Give them one of yours, as none needs a SMILE as much as he who has no more to give.

The New Ten Commandments (for Senior Citizens)

1. Focus on enjoying people, not on indulging in or accumulating material things.
2. Plan to spend whatever you have saved. You deserve to enjoy it and the few healthy years you have left. Travel if you can afford it. Don't leave anything for your children or loved ones to quarrel about. By leaving anything, you may even cause more trouble when you are gone.
3. Live in the here and now, not in the yesterdays and tomorrows. It is only today that you can handle. Yesterday is gone, tomorrow may not even happen.
4. Enjoy your grandchildren (if blessed with any) but don't be their full time baby sitter. You have no moral obligation to take care of them. Don't have any guilt about refusing to baby sit anyone's kids, including your own grandkids. Your parental obligation is to your children. After you have raised them into responsible adults, your duties of child-rearing or babysitting are finished. Let your children raise their own off-springs.
5. Accept physical weakness, sickness and other physical pains. It is a part of the aging process. Enjoy whatever your health can allow.
6. Enjoy what you are and what you have right now. Stop working hard for what you do not have. If you don't have something, it's probably too late.
7. Enjoy your life with your spouse, children, grandchildren and friends. People, who truly love you, love you for yourself, not for what you have. Anyone who loves you for what you have will just give you misery.
8. Forgive and accept forgiveness. Forgive yourself and others. Enjoy peace of mind and peace of soul.
9. Befriend death. It's a natural part of the life cycle. Don't be afraid of it. Death is the beginning of a new and better life. So, prepare yourself not for death but for a new life with the Almighty
10. Be at peace with your "Creator". For ..He is all you have after you leave this life.
